Roaring Twenties Fashion Show
January 14, 2017

Join us at Gaithersburg's historic Kentlands Mansion for a program to remember! Montgomery History and the Art Deco Society of Washington are co-hosting a special vintage fashion show featuring looks from the 1920s. Start this elegant afternoon with a light reception and syncopated music from the 1920s and 1930s performed by pianist Alex Hassan. Light fare and non-alcoholic beverages are included with your ticket, and a cash bar featuring local wines will be provided by Olney Winery.

Then enjoy a rare opportunity to see vintage clothes in action! The Kentlands Mansion will be transformed into a runway for private collectors to model their clothing and accessories from the Roaring Twenties. See flapper fringe bounce, asymmetrical hemlines sway, and silk chiffon float down the aisle as these pieces come to life.

Art Deco Society member Lori Crandall is the show organizer and she has lined up several models with complete and authentic vintage outfits and accessories. She has produced a number of our past successful shows and we are so glad she is back to do it again. Lori will be joined by fashion show veteran Donna Limerick as emcee. Donna's charm and wit will surely help make for an entertaining afternoon.

Following the show, all guests are invited to the Beall-Dawson Museum, a short drive away, for a special curatorial tour of Montgomery History's exhibit Cocktails, Lipstick & Jazz: Life in the Age of Fitzgerald, included in your ticket price.

Dressing in your own vintage attire is most welcome, but not required! Space is limited for this special program, so buy your ticket now and enjoy early bird pricing. No tickets will be sold at the door. Tickets are $25 for ADSW and Montgomery History members; $35 for nonmembers.

There are also wonderful pre-Congress tours in Cincinnati and Detroit, and a post-Congress tour in Pittsburgh, so delegates may see some other Art Deco treasures of America's Industrial Heartland.

Looking forward to seeing you in Cleveland!
